Ticket gets you a square meal and something to drink. Beer, wine and giggle water cost extra.
Don't feel 86'd if you ain't got the dough. Ms. Myers has the skinny on free tix.

OK, Dolls and Gents ...

Get ready for the Peralta Speakeasy Auction!

We're reliving the Prohibition-era, Peralta style. Join us at the Uptown Juice Joint, aka Uptown Auto Body and Fender, for great food provided by Peralta's own Sophina Uong and her friend Kevin Godes at Nico Martin Presents, plus DJ spins from Tess Unger. It promises to be a night for the books.

You don't need a password to get in. Nor do you need a pocket full of dough to have a good time.

But let us be on the level here; our community ponied up some serious goods, and every penny you spend on them will benefit Peralta and our kids. Auction proceeds underwrite music, art and sports programs. It helps to pay for kindergarten aides, the librarian and our Second Step teacher. It's a swell way to make sure Peralta will continue to be an establishment where our children thrive.

So put on the ritz, or come as you are... Just come before the tables start closing!

See you there!

HATS OFF TO THE CREW

The people on this list worked double duty to make this night go off without a hitch, especially Auction chairs Star Lightner and Ann Becker.

These two dames are the bees knees.

Thank you everyone, for all your hard work.

Auction Rules

Where Do We Start?

Check in at the entrance to receive your bid number (even if you bought your tickets online). Keep it handy because you will use it to bid on all items you wish to buy in the live and silent auctions.

The Silent Auction

The silent auction starts at 5 pm. Minimum bids and minimum raise are indicated on bid sheets for each item. To place a bid, write your name, bid number and amount on the bid sheet. Your bid is a legal promise to buy that item and that price you indicated. The last (highest) valid bid entered prior to the section closing will be the winning bid.

Pay to Play Variations

“Pay to Play” items have multiple winners. Some are fixed price events, so when you add your bid number and name in the pay-to-pay sheet, you are guaranteed a spot at that price. These event sign-ups fill up quickly, so bid early!

Other “Pay to Play” parties are progressive bidding. The bidding starts at the lowest level, say $15/person. Once the $15 slots are full, following bidders will take a slot at the next level, say $20/person. Therefore, some people may pay different amounts to attend the same event (some might pay $15 and others $20). Don't forget to check the bid sheets to make sure no one outbid you!

Live Auction

To bid, raise your hand until the auctioneer acknowledges your bid. If a group is bidding on one item, designate one person to place your combined bid. Auction items will be awarded to one purchaser only. A bid acknowledged by the auctioneer is a legal promise to pay.

Raise Your Paddle

During the auction, we'll take a moment to fundraise for a specific Peralta cause. The auctioneer will ask for donations at decreasing levels. For example, the auctioneer will say “Raise a paddle for $200”, then “Raise a paddle for $100”, and so on. If you want to contribute, raise your hand when the auctioneer calls the donation amount that works for you.

How Do I Pay?

All items must be paid for by the end of the evening. For your convenience we gladly accept cash, check made out to “PPTG,” or Visa / Mastercard.

How Do I Collect My Loot?

Once you have paid for your winning items, take your receipt to the Pick-Up Table and claim your items and/or gift certificates. If you can't stay long enough to collect your winnings, either leave a check with a friend or you will pay a $10 fee to pick up your items at Peralta on Tuesday, March 8.

And Some Final Words

Unless otherwise noted, certificates for goods and services must be used by the end of the year. All items and services are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the donors. ALL SALES ARE FINAL. The Auction Committee has endeavored to describe and catalog all items accurately; regardless, all items are offered and sold “As is.”
